The United States Attorney charges:

Between on or about April, 2005 and on or about January 14, 2008, within the Southern District of California, defendant DAVID GRUMMER, a person who sells and distributes pesticides, did knowingly offer for sale, distribute, ship and sell pesticides that are unregistered and pesticides whose registration has been cancelled, to wit: DDT and Chlordane, a misdemeanor, in violation of Title 7, United States Code, Sections 136j(a)(1)(A) and 1361(b)(1)(B).

Between on or about April, 2005, and on or about January 14, 2008, within the Southern District of California, defendant DAVID GRUMMER did knowingly violate a requirement of the regulations on stratospheric ozone control, to wit: the prohibition on the sale of R-12 freon, a class I substance, for use as a refrigerant in a motor vehicle to an individual who was not properly certified, in violation of Title 42, United States Code, Section 7413(c)(1) and 40 CFR 82.154(m).

Count 3

Between on or about April, 2005, and on or about January 14, 2008, within the Southern District of California, defendant DAVID GRUMMER did knowingly and willfully violate a requirement of the regulations regarding the transportation of hazardous substances, to wit: DDT, Chlordane and compressed gases CFC-12 and CFC-134, in that he did not declare and classify them as hazardous substances on the shipping papers, in violation of Title 49, United States Code, Section 5124 and 49 CFR 171.2.

DATED: April 17th, 2008.
